Professional Profile

Front-End Web Developer with practical experience designing and developing responsive, accessible and user-friendly websites using HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript, Bootstrap and PHP.

Recently completed practical web development training while building portfolio projects demonstrating responsive design, REST API integration, AJAX, JSON, local storage and Git version control.

Alongside web development, I create games and animations using Godot and Blender, strengthening my programming, problem-solving, and creative thinking. I am passionate about creating modern web experiences and am seeking an opportunity to contribute and continue growing as a Front-End Web Developer.
